Shocking Accident

On Wednesday morning last, a man was found dead between this place and Chickies near the quarry. His death was occasioned by a rolling stone from a quarry down the side of a hill. The stone struck his head and bruised and mangled it in a most awful manner. He was seen passing Mr. Reimers on Tuesday evening near sunset, at which time it was supposed the unfortunate accident occurred. An inquest was held over his body on Wednesday which was interred in the burying ground of this place on the evening of said day. He was dressed in a velvet round-about, and cord pantaloons, and appeared to have been a plasterer or tender of Masons.

Bowling Score

Men's League At Westminster Building

There was a good turnout of men at the bowling alleys of the Westminster Building last night and a lot of pep was shown. While the scores may seem small to those who are in the habit of keeping up with the "Big Leagues," for beginners it is a fair showing.

The Westminster Bible Class meets every Sunday morning in the Second Presbyterian Church, corner Prince and St. Asaph streets, at ten o'clock.

The teacher, Mr. Glenn L. Justice, always gives a good lecture and the song service is inspiring. All men who are not members of other Bible Classes, and visitors in the city are urged to attend both the Bible Class and the bowling contests.

DEMOCRATIC ACTIVITY

Richmond, Va., Oct. 31.—Congressman H. D. Flood, just out of the Tenth District, reached Richmond recently, enthused over political conditions all over Virginia. Last Saturday he addressed a tremendous crowd at Appomattox; Senator S. L. Ferguson, John R. Horsey and Congressman P. H. Drewry, also speaking. The meeting, which was a record one, was characterized by great enthusiasm.

Leaving Appomattox Congressman Flood and Senator Ferguson went to Fluvanna, where they both spoke. On Monday they addressed a tremendous crowd at Palmyra, it being court day. Three Republican speakers, headed by Colonel Henry W. Anderson, had been billed to put in

Your state of health largely depends upon the food you eat

No one who is physically ailing in any way can afford to take chances with the food he eats. For upon the selection of your food, and upon its perfect digestion and assimilation largely depends your state of health.

The most important thing in connection with the digestibility of any cereal food is the way it is prepared—and the length of time it is cooked or baked.

Grape-Nuts, the rich cereal food made from whole wheat flour and malted barley, is probably baked longer than any other cereal food.

A large part of the starch of the wheat and barley is changed into dextrin and grape-sugar in preparing Grape-Nuts. This is one reason why Grape-Nuts is so easily digested by even the most delicate people.

Grape-Nuts is wheat and barley so processed as to make it delicious and appetizing; even young children thrive on it and grow strong and rosy.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it as a cereal with milk or cream, or make it into a delicious pudding. It will be enjoyed and relished by every member of the family.

their appearance, the other two G. O. P. orators being Lou Summers and S. H. Hoge. None of the three showed up.

When it was learned that Congressman Flood was present a movement was put on foot to have him engage Colonel Anderson in joint discussion. To this Mr. Flood readily agreed. Time wore on, however, and as none of the Republican speakers put in an appearance, Mr. Flood delivered a ringing address, which was cheered to the echo. He was followed by Senator Ferguson, whose remarks were also well received. Geo. A. Bowles, candidate to succeed himself in the house of delegates from Goochland, was the last speaker.

Mr. Flood was presented at Palmyra by Colonel Perkins, principal of Fort Union Military Academy, who was a strong Tucker leader. Col. Perkins said that this was a time for every faction of the party to stand together. "Our flag is now under fire of the enemy," said Col. Perkins. "It is a time for all Democrats to rally to the colors." Pembroke Pettit, a former state senator and a supporter of Mr. Tucker, presented Mr. Bowles, who, in turn, introduced Senator Ferguson.

Congressman Flood spoke Monday night at Scottsville. He will probably remain in Richmond, at Democratic Campaign Headquarters, for several days.

Commenting on the political situation throughout Virginia Mr. Flood

THIS YOUNG MOTHER

Tells Childless Women What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Millston, Wis.—"I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are very fond of children and for a considerable time after we married I feared I would not have any owing to my weak condition. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I have a nice strong healthy baby girl. I can honestly say that I did not suffer much more when my baby was born than I used to suffer with my periods before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound years ago. I give all the credit to your medicine and shall always recommend it very highly."—Mrs. H. H. JANSSEN, Millston, Wisconsin.

How can women who are weak and sickly expect or hope to become mothers of healthy children? Their first duty is to themselves. They should overcome the derangement or debility that is dragging them down, and strengthen the entire system, as did Mrs. Janssen, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and then they will be in a position to give their children the blessing of a good constitution.

Aileen Stanley, that just-a-little-different song-comedienne, certainly sings "Cry Baby Blues" in a winning manner. "Who'll Be the Next One to Cry Over You" is one of Ernest Hare's best. A sentimental number set to a frivolous tune.

said that reports reaching him indicate a great revival in party enthusiasm. Personal observation led him to believe that the Democratic majority at the polls next month would be impressive. He thinks the G. O. P. Leaders already apprehend disaster, but does not believe they are as yet prepared for the really crushing defeat which is in store for them.

Matters could not look better throughout the state, said he. He urges all Democratic voters to cast their ballots on November 8th.

When It's 10 O'clock in Washington

TEN o'clock was the favored dinner hour in medieval times. Dinner, in fact, comes to us from the early French words meaning, "the tenth hour." Whenever you are in Washington, remember it is always ten o'clock here. At least, every time of day is dining time—and no matter where the clock's hands point, here is food of seasonable excellence, ready at your command at prices you can commend.
